Mrs. Margaret Gillespie, who died in May 1884

Mrs. Margaret Gillespie, who has been ill for some months past, died at her home in this city yesterday. A more extended obituary notice will appear next week. The funeral will take place at three o'clock P. M., to-morrow, at the house.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Alden, an invitation has been sent to Rev. Mr. Bryan, former pastor of the Presbyterian church, to officiate at the funeral services of the late Mrs. Gillespie. He is expected this evening. The session of the church have appointed a committee to invite him to preach next Sabbath.

Carbondale Leader
May 16, 1884, p. 2